

Chamberlain/Oacoma Youth Football League 2010/2011

EQUIPMENT

This is a tackle football program, using modified rules. The Youth Football Program will provide a helmet, shoulder pads, pants with protective pads and a team game jersey. Participants are responsible for the return of this equipment at the end of the season, or will be billed for the value of any missing equipment. Participants must provide a mouth piece, Rubber Form Cleats (no hard cleats), and an over-sized t-shirt to wear over shoulder pads for practices. It is recommended that players also wear an athletic supporter.

REGISTRATION AND PARENTAL CONSENT TO PARTICIPATE

In return for being allowed to participate in Football Instruction and/or other football related activities offered at Chamberlain, South Dakota, and in consideration of the permission extended to me by the instructors and organizing entities to participate, I do hereby for my child, myself, my spouse, my heirs and successors, release and forever discharge all of the instructors and sponsoring entities including but not limited to the Chamberlain/Oacoma Youth Football League and all other sponsoring entities, and all of their officers, coaches, agents and employees or other acting officially or otherwise, from all claims, demands, or actions of any kinds on account of any injury, or any damage to me or my property which might occur during participation in such activities.

I have read the above waiver and release of liability, and I agree to all the provisions contained therein.
